Biography

John is married with 3 daughters. He has lived in Westmoreland County all of his life, and has been involved in Riverview Homes since childhood. He is very active in the American Diabetes Association and the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation.

John started in the service department as a "lot boy" while still in Junior High. Eventually, he worked his way up to a drivers position, where he delivered & installed homes until 1988. Then he moved into the sales department at the Vandergrift Sales Center.

Currently, as Vice President, he manages the sales team at RHI.

John was elected to the PA Manufactured Housing Association Board in 2001 and still holds a board seat as the Southwest District Director. He also serves as the chairman of PMHA's Retailer Committee, and sits on their P.A.C. Committee. John sits on both the Commodore Homes and Pennwest Homes Builder Councils. He is also very involved with RHI's in house training program.
