Biography

Building a home is the biggest single project that most people will undertake in their lifetime. It is important to find someone who is knowledgeable about the process and understands what it is like to go through the building process.

I understand this because I was a Riverview customer before I was a Riverview employee. My family and I built our Pine Grove with Riverview in 2001. We shopped other competitors and soon realized what a professional company Riverview is. So when I talk about the advantage of building with Riverview, not only am I talking from my experience as a Home Consultant with Riverview, but also with my experience as a home buyer with Riverview.

My family and I are very happy with our home. My wife and I have been married since 1995 and started dating in 1986. We have a son that was born in 1999 and is training in martial arts. He is also a huge Pittsburgh Pirates fan, although that is not always an easy task.

My goal here at Riverview Homes is to provide all of my customers with the same great experience building their new home that I had. When we sit down to talk about your new home and what aspects of a new home are most important to you, I am sure that together we can build a beautiful new home for you.
