Biography

Kevin and his wife started dating in 1986, and have been married since 1995. They have a son that was born in 1989, and he is currently training in martial arts. He is also a huge Pittsburgh Pirates fan, although that is not always an easy task. He was diagnosed with Juvenile Inflammatory Arthritis (JIA) in 2006. Kevin joined the sales team at the Greensburg Sales Center in 2005 as a Sales Consultant. In 2010, Kevin transferred to the Vandergriff Sales Center where he currently works as a Sales Consultant.

Building a home is the biggest single project that most people will undertake in their lifetime. It is important to find someone who is knowledgeable about the process and understands what it is like to go through the building process. Kevin understands this because he was a Riverview Homes customer before he was a Riverview Homes employee. He and his family built their Pine Grove home with Riverview in 2001, and they are very happy with it. In his words, "We shopped other competitors and soon realized that Riverview Homes is a professional company. So when I talk about the advantage of building with Riverview, not only am I talking from my experience as a Sales Consultant with the company, but also with my experience as a home buyer with Riverview."

Kevin's goal at RHI is to provide all of his customers with the same great experience building their new home that he had building his new home. When he sits down with you to talk about your new home and the aspects of a new home are most important to you, he is sure that together you can build a beautiful new home for your family.
